ABOUT THE NHPPA

The Natural Health Products Protection Association (NHPPA) is a federally incorporated, non-profit organization devoted to protecting Canadians' access to natural health products. The Association lobbies government, publishes information and advises the public. Its experts support natural health stakeholders as changing legislation impacts their livelihoods.

In 2010 the NHPPA launched its Three Part Action Plan to focus attention on Canadians' constitutional rights. This plan includes the Charter of Health Freedom. The NHPPA is solely supported by concerned natural health products manufacturers, retailers and public advocates, individuals who believe we should not have to compromise freedom for safety.

MORE LECTURE INFO

As the crisis deepens we need you to help spread the word.

The more people we can reach, educate, get angry and get active, the better chance we have to re-set this unfair trajectory. Health Canada's NHP Regulations have been set up to begin greater enforcement in 2011. Bill C-36 is still in Parliament (when this flyer was printed), but is affecting Canadians even now.

It is not 'too late'. It is not an exercise in futility to 'challenge the government'. In the face of such powerful opposition we all have a tendency to accept the status quo. But we can change, we need not be quieted into submission. Canadians' outrage has moved the government before. We can maintain our empowerment.

NHPPA's President, Shawn Buckley is one of a few lawyers with the expertise to explain the laws that could extinguish our freedom to choose vitamin, mineral, herbal and traditional natural health products. Hear Shawn's lecture and be exposed to the facts; then learn how you can engage with the NHPPA and change the future of the natural health community in Canada, permanently.
